ELEMENTS OF OFFENSE

Unlawful Discharge of a Pollutant into a
Water of the United States
33 U.S.C. § 1319(c)(1)(A)

Title 33, United States Code, Section 1319(c)(1)(A), provides criminal penalties for any entity or person who negligently discharges a pollutant from a point source into a water of the United States in violation of a permit.

In order for you to be guilty of this crime, the Government would have to prove each of the following beyond a reasonable doubt:

First: That you negigently discharged or caused the discharge of a pollutant from a point source into a water of the United States;

Second: That such discharge was in violation of a permit issued under Section 1342 of Title 33 of the United States Code.

The United States must also prove, for purposes of venue, that one or more of the acts constituting an element of each offense occurred in the Western District of Louisiana.
